

Name: _____

EXAMINATION FOR REGISTRATION

MANAGER / MATCH MAKER

Please circle the correct answer for each question below.

Please select only one answer for each question

REGISTRATION PROCESS

- (1) The NSW Police Force must conduct a security determination on a person who has applied to be registered as a manager or match-maker and must determine that the person is
- a fit and proper person to be registered, and;
 - it is not contrary to the public interest for the person to be registered before that person may be registered to be a manager or match-maker with the Combat Sports Authority?
- a. True.
b. False.
- (2) What is the maximum time before a contest that a combatant registered with the Combat Sports Authority who is over 18 years old is required to have a serology clearance certificate issued by a medical practitioner which certifies they are not capable of transmitting specified medical conditions or diseases?
- a. 3 months.
b. 6 months.
c. 12 months.
d. 3 years.
- (3) What is the maximum time before a contest that a combatant registered with the Combat Sports Authority who is over 18 years old is required to have a certificate of fitness issued by a medical practitioner which certifies they are fit to compete?
- a. 3 months.
b. 6 months.
c. 12 months.
d. 3 years.
- (4) A combatant who ordinarily resides outside of Australia who is exempt from the requirement to register with the Combat Sports Authority must undergo blood tests and a medical examination in Australia and provide a serological clearance certificate and a certificate of fitness to the Authority before they compete?
- a. True.
b. False.

PERMIT PROCESS QUESTIONS

- (5) Who may apply for a permit to conduct a combat sport contest in NSW?
- a. A member of the public.
b. A person who is registered with the Authority as a promoter in the relevant promoter registration class(es).
c. A combatant registered with the Combat Sports Authority.
d. A body approved by the Minister as an Approved Amateur Body

CONDUCT OF THE WEIGH-IN AND CONTEST

- (6) A combatant must not engage in a contest unless they have submitted themselves to the weigh-in for the contest. They must present themselves for weigh-in
- Any time in the 24 hours before a contest
 - At the time set by the Promoter of the contest (in the 24 hour period before the scheduled start of the contest)
 - Within 2 hours of the time set by the Promoter
 - At the same time as their opponent
- (7) Who may compete in a combat sport contest?
- Only combatants whose names are on the fight card which has been approved by the Combat Sports Authority.
 - Any registered combatant who has a current serological clearance.
 - Anyone who has been training in a gym.
 - Combatants approved by the Approved Amateur Body.
- (8) How long before the commencement of the contest must the promoter ensure that each combatant has undergone a pre-fight medical examination and been certified as fit to compete?
- On the day of the contest.
 - Within 48 hours of the contest.
 - Any time in the week before the contest.
 - Any time within 3 months of the contest date.
- (9) Who can stop a combat sport contest, or direct a referee to stop a contest?
- The medical practitioner in attendance.
 - The combat sports inspector in attendance.
 - The referee of the contest.
 - All of the above.
- (10) A referee must stop a contest if asked by the combatant's trainer or second?
- True.
 - False.
- (11) The Combat Sports Authority can issue penalty notices or commence prosecutions through the courts for breaches of the Combat Sports Act 2013 and the Combat Sports Regulation 2014?
- True.
 - False.

MEDICAL RECORD BOOKS

- (12) A combatant registered with the Combat Sports Authority must produce any medical record book issued to them to the medical practitioner undertaking a pre-contest medical examination and the post-contest medical examination?
- True
 - False

- (13) A medical practitioner undertaking a pre-contest examination or a post contest examination may:
- Determine that a combatant is fit to compete.
 - Determine that the combatant is not fit to compete before a specified date.
 - Determine that the combatant is not fit to compete before a specified medical examination.
 - All of the above

PAYMENT OF COMBATANTS AT PROFESSIONAL CONTESTS

- (14) The payment of any monetary or valuable reward to a professional combatant for engaging in a combat sport contest (the agreed purse) is a commercial arrangement between the combatant or their representative and the Promoter
- True
 - False

CLEARANCE

- (15) Combatants registered with the Combat Sports Authority who compete interstate may require a clearance to compete. Who can issue this clearance?
- The promoter
 - The combatant's trainer
 - The Approved Amateur Body
 - The Combat Sports Authority
- (16) Which of the following should a match-maker consider when matching two combatants?
- That combatants are of similar ability.
 - Each combatant's weight.
 - Each combatant's age.
 - Each combatant's experience in the combat sport style.
 - The fitness of each combatant.
 - The combatant's results from recent contests.
 - Whether each combatant is certified as not fit to compete for a specified period.
 - Whether each combatant is registered in the applicable registration class with the Combat Sports Authority
 - All of the above

----- End of Exam -----