

Name: _____

EXAMINATION FOR REGISTRATION

PROMOTER

*Please circle the correct answer for each question below.
Please select only one answer for each question*

PERMIT PROCESS

- (1) Who may apply for a permit to hold a combat sport contest in NSW?
 - a. A member of the public.
 - b. A person who is registered with the Combat Sports Authority as a promoter in the relevant promoter registration class(es).
 - c. A combatant registered with the Combat Sports Authority.
 - d. A body approved by the Minister as an Approved Amateur Body.

- (2) What is the minimum time before a contest that an application for a permit to hold a combat sport contest must be submitted to the Combat Sports Authority?
 - a. 28 days.
 - b. 21 days.
 - c. 14 days.
 - d. 5 days.

- (3) The fee payable for a permit to hold a combat sport contest is based on the number of tickets sold for a contest?
 - a. True.
 - b. False.

- (4) What is the minimum time before a contest that the finalised fight card must be submitted to the Combat Sports Authority in the approved manner and form?
 - a. 28 days.
 - b. 21 days.
 - c. 14 days.
 - d. 5 days.

- (5) What is the minimum time before a contest that the plan for evacuating any injured combatant from the premises used for the combat sport contest must be submitted to the Combat Sports Authority in the approved manner and form?
 - a. 28 days.
 - b. 21 days.
 - c. 14 days.
 - d. 5 days.

CONDUCT OF THE WEIGH-IN AND CONTEST

- (6) Who is responsible for ensuring that the medical practitioner is present at each combat sport contest?
 - a. The venue.
 - b. The combatants.
 - c. The Approved Amateur Body.
 - d. The promoter of the contest.

- (7) Who is responsible for ensuring the contest area, including the ring or cage, complies with the rules made by the Authority under section 107 of the Combat Sports Act 2013?
- The venue.
 - The combat sports inspector.
 - The Approved Amateur Body.
 - The promoter.
- (8) Who may compete in a combat sport contest?
- Only combatants whose names are on the fight card which has been approved by the Combat Sports Authority.
 - Any registered combatant who has a current serological clearance.
 - Anyone who has been training in a gym.
 - Combatants approved by the Approved Amateur Body.
- (9) How long before the commencement of the contest must the promoter ensure that each combatant has undergone a pre-fight medical examination and been certified as fit to compete?
- On the day of the contest.
 - Within 48 hours of the contest.
 - Any time in the week before the contest.
 - Any time within 3 months of the contest date.
- (10) Who can stop a combat sport contest, or direct a referee to stop a contest?
- The medical practitioner in attendance.
 - The combat sports inspector in attendance.
 - The referee of the contest.
 - All of the above.
- (11) A referee must stop a contest if asked by the combatant's trainer or second?
- True.
 - False.
- (12) Who is responsible for providing a stretcher and ensuring that it is ringside?
- The promoter of the contest.
 - The doctor.
 - The referee.
 - The ring hire company.
- (13) Who is responsible for ensuring that all the conditions placed on a permit to hold a combat sport contest are complied with?
- The promoter of the contest.
 - The doctor.
 - The referee.
 - The Approved Amateur Body.
- (14) The Combat Sports Authority can issue penalty notices or commence prosecutions through the courts for breaches of the Combat Sports Act 2013 and the Combat Sports Regulation 2014?
- True.
 - False.
- (15) Who appoints the officials at an amateur combat sport contest?
- The Approved Amateur Body.
 - The promoter of the contest.
 - The Combat Sports Authority.

- (16) A combatant who ordinarily resides outside of Australia who is exempt from the requirement to register with the Combat Sports Authority must undergo blood tests and a medical examination in Australia and provide a serological clearance certificate and a certificate of fitness to the Authority before they compete?
- True.
 - False.
- (17) The Promoter must ensure that each combatant complies with any requirements of the regulations or rules relating to the wearing or use of protective equipment?
- True.
 - False.
- (18) If a promoter of the contest becomes aware that a combatant has died or been admitted to hospital within 48 hours of the contest, they must notify the Combat Sports Authority in writing of the date of death or date and place of admission to hospital?
- True.
 - False.
- (19) The promoter of the contest must ensure that a briefing is held before the first contest is conducted, which of the following must be discussed at this briefing?
- The rules made by the Authority under section 107 of the Combat Sports Act 2013 that relate to the particular combat sport.
 - The title of the sports rules that relate to each combat sport involved in the combat sport contest.
 - An explanation of when the rules made by the Authority under section 107 of the Combat Sports Act 2013 will override those sports rules.
 - The plan that the promoter provided to the Authority for evacuating any injured combatant from the premises used for the combat sport contest.
 - All of the above.
- (20) The promoter of the contest must ensure that a briefing is held before the first contest is conducted, which of the following must attend this briefing:
- The promoter of the contest.
 - The attending medical practitioner(s).
 - Each referee.
 - The combat sports inspector.
 - All of the above.

APPOINTMENT AND PAYMENT OFFICIALS AT PROFESSIONAL CONTESTS

- (21) The fees for the officials at a professional combat sport contest in NSW are set by the Combat Sports Authority and must be paid to the officials by the:
- Combat Sports Authority.
 - Promoter of the contest.
 - Combat sport inspector.
 - Approved Amateur Body.
- (22) Professional officials at a contest must be paid?
- At the end of the show.
 - Before the commencement of the first professional contest.
 - When the ticket takings have been collected.
 - Once their appointment is confirmed by the Combat Sports Authority.

-----End of exam-----